BY AIR

Willard Airport, owned and operated by the University of Illinois, is located five miles south of Champaign, just off U.S. Route 45. Daily service to and from major U.S. cities is provided by a number of commercial airlines including American Eagle and Northwest Express. Limousine, cab, and car rental services are available at the airport.

BY TRAIN OR BUS

Amtrak provides daily rail passenger service. Two bus lines, Greyhound Bus Lines and Trailways Bus System, provide transportation to and from Champaign. Both the Amtrak station and bus depot are located in downtown Champaign approximately three miles northwest of campus; cabs and city bus services are available at the station.
